

If your claim had an end date of 12/26/2020 because you were on an extension for Louisiana Unemployment DO NOT FILE A NEW CLAIM!!!!

Even if you got this message when you filed your weekly certification this week. DO NOT FILE A NEW CLAIM! This banner was not up there last night as the bill had not been signed. If you refiled last night, they will figure it out. Please give them a few weeks to figure it out.

It is not clear when these extended claims will begin paying out.

Keep filing your weekly certifications.

If your claim is ending on 12/26/2020 due to the expiration of the CARES Act, please do NOT file another claim. The system will update your claim as needed.

Thank you for submitting your Weekly Certification. Based on our records, your expected payment status for this Payment Week is:
You should expect to be paid this week.

You just filed the last week of this claim. If you're still unemployed, you can apply for a new claim by clicking "File New Claim" below.

If you need to file a new claim, please do so as soon as possible. Failure to file before Saturday at midnight will postpone the effective date and prevent you from certifying a week (weeks prior to the effective date cannot be filed).

You can contact the claim center at 1-866-783-5567 if you have questions.

Be Proactive! Upload your Driver's License and Social Security Card using the attached instructions if you have not done so already. I know the email they send says you just need one but do both. Sometimes a selfie with your id helps too. The fraud has been absurd.

The bill was signed including $600 stimulus checks. The Treasury will be releasing information about when those will be issued in mid-January. I have a January 9th course to break down all of the items in the bill as it relates to taxes, so we won't know a whole lot more until then.
